

What the Bible says

Lesson 21

1. Mark the correct choices:

- only pastors and teachers are to witness for Christ
- witnessing means sharing our faith with others
- we may witness through our actions as well as our words
- bringing our offerings has nothing to do with witnessing
- every Christian, man, woman, or child can represent Christ in some way
- telling about our faith is always very difficult
- having a plan to follow may help us in our witnessing
- "God's Great Exchange" tells how Jesus was substituted for us
- man's own "self-help" efforts to get to heaven might work for some
- God now sees our sins on Jesus and Jesus' holiness on us
- because of God's great exchange, we receive many spiritual blessings

2. Do you agree (A) or disagree (D) with these statements?

- Since everyone can see where our churches are, we should make no effort to find unchurched people and invite them.
- It is a waste of money to send missionaries to far-off places which already have some kind of religion.
- God expects us to work at sharing our faith with others.
- A person's Christian life can be a powerful witness to those around him.
- God wants us to invite people to believe, not force them.
- Only those who have taken extensive evangelism training should try to tell another about their faith.
- Children may lead other children to the Savior by inviting them to Sunday School.
- Witnessing is something we do to earn a better place in heaven for ourselves.
- Witnessing can begin in our own homes, to our own children.
